

I am concerned about allowing wiretapping on the internet. It seems that our personal freedoms and privacy are constanly being eroded in the name of law enforcement. The rule of law says that the burden of proof rest upon the government, and that we are all innocent until proven guilty. By allowing widespread wiretapping of this unique media you are allowing law enforcement to violate our rights. Please do not let this plan go forth.